

Public transit

Daily Herald Transportation Writer Marni Pyke recently used public transportation for her work commute. Total round trip: About 5.5 hours

● From home to work: About 2.5 hours

- 1) Boarded Metra BNSF Line train from Downers Grove station at about 8:20. Arrived in Chicago Union Station at about 8:55 a.m.
- 2) Walked to CTA Blue Line Clinton Station, boarded train to Rosemont at 9:23 a.m. Arrived Rosemont Station at 10:13 a.m.
- 3) Departed on Pace Bus Route 606 at 10:30. Arrived at work in Arlington Heights at 10:56 a.m.

● From work to home: About 3 hours

- A) Boarded Pace Bus Route 757 in Arlington Heights at 2:49 p.m. Arrived at Forest Park Transit Center at 3:56 p.m.
- B) Departed on Pace Bus Route 301 at 4 p.m. Arrived at Oak Brook Center at 4:50 p.m.
- C) Departed on Pace Bus Route 322 at 5:03 p.m. Arrived at Yorktown Center at 5:23.
- D) Departed on Pace Bus Route 834 at 5:30 p.m. Arrived in Downers Grove at 5:46 p.m.